Chickasaw Allotment contest No.
261.
Josiah Robinson (by mother and natural guardian, Jane Robinson), contestant, vs. Mingo In-Pun-Nubbee, contestee. Notice of Contest.

Land in controversy: $\frac{3}{4}$ of SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$ and NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of SW $\frac{1}{4}$ and SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of SW $\frac{1}{4}$ all in section 26, township 4 south, range 5 east.

Mingo In-Pun-Nubbee, the contesta-tee in the above entitled and numbered cause, is hereby notified to appear before the commission, to wit: Five civilized tribes at its office in Tishomingo, Indian Territory, on the 23rd day of May, 1904, at 9 o'clock a. m., to answer the complaint of the contestant, Josiah Robinson, by his mother and natural guardian, Jane Robinson, regarding the claim of the said Josiah Robinson to take in allotment the tract of land above described.

Dated this 17th day of April, 1904.

BIG HOTEL IN THE WOODS.

Tavern inside the World's Fair Grounds, Surrounded By a Forrest. Offers a Luxurious and Restful Retreat—Comfort
at the World's Fair.

The comfort for a visitor to an exposition was never the subject for so much intelligent thought and preparation as it has been at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis.

One of the features that cannot fail to appeal to the visitor is the convenience and comfort afforded by the inside inn, a structure of 2,507 rooms, covering an area of about 400,000 feet, wholly within the World's Fair grounds.

Probably no hotel ever built commands a view so diversified or grand from the wide veranda that surround the mammoth structure, a wonderful panorama spreads before you. Many of the state buildings, with their great and magnificent structures, present their most attractive facades.
Some of the foreign buildings may be seen, and the forests of towers and belfries, domes and minarets, rising above the great exhibit palaces and seen through the forests of real trees that surround the hostelry, give today of the other glories that lie beyond.

A leisurely walk of five minutes will lead the visitor on the main terrace in front of Festival Hall, the center of the "main picture" of the Expon-sition, the grandest spectacle ever occurred by man. Another five minutes walk and the visitor may find himself on The Pike, a street of amusement, a full mile long, with the shows of all nations in gay and stirring array.

In the ten minutes' walk many of the main exhibit palaces have been passed. These comprise the largest and grandest collection of architectural triumphs ever assembled in any one place. Notwithstanding its close proximity to these scenes of gaiety and splendor, noise and confusion, the inside inn offers a delightful retreat.
During the noon hour the visitor may retire for a brief rest and resume his delightful task of sight-seeing refreshed and all the more able to appreciate and enjoy the World's Fair wonders.

The rates at this hotel within the grounds are no higher than those charged elsewhere. A good room may be had for $1.50 per day, including admission to the grounds. Other rooms may be had up to $5 per day, according to the luxuries demanded.
There is a restaurant in the building with a seating capacity for 2,500 persons.

We make a specialty of fitting glasses. We have the skill and equipment and prices are reasonable. F. J. Ramsey. 10

Ballard's Horehound Syrup.
Immediately relieves loose, croupy cough, oppressed, rattling, rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C.
Stearns, druggist, Shilohsburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1904: I have been selling Ballard's Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice it, when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it. 25c, 50c
